Comment est choisi le président de la République en France ?

fill in the _____ with an English word

fill in the (_____) with a French translation

Every ____ years, the French select their _____, the president.

"Le suffrage universel direct" means the vote of _____ to name someone (_____).

In _____, Charles de Gaulle proposed a _____ election.

To become the president of France, you have to be _____, _____ years old, and have the right (_____) to vote

You also have to find _____ elected officials that support you (_____)

Each candidate has the right to the _____ amount of time to speak.

"Les primaires" = a vote _____ to anyone who wants _____ the best candidate (to represent their party).

Almost everyone votes: men, women (since _____), French citizens who live _____, and even _____.

All the candidates are placed on the line of the "_____". (In other words, all of the eligible candidates are on the first ballot.)

The two _____ candidates go on to the "_____."

Their _____ is _____ years.
